

Corpair Supply Company, Inc.
827 Texas Ct.
O'Fallon, MO 63366
FAA Repair Station #SE2R158L
EASA.145.4353

INSTRUCTIONS FOR EASA DUAL RELEASE

Purchase Order/Work Order Contract Number _____

Part Number _____ Description _____

Customer Name: _____

Address: _____

Ship To Address (if different): _____

1. Are there any Airworthiness Directives (A.D.'s) that are required by the Customer other than A.D.'s issued by the United States Federal Aviation Administration (FAA)? No ___ Yes ___ If yes, list the issuing Aviation Authority and A.D. Reference Numbers below. Use additional sheets, if necessary.

2. Is Corpair Supply Company, Inc. (Corpair) required to use Technical Data supplied by the Customer to perform the required maintenance set forth on the Purchase Order/Work Order Contract.

Yes ___ If yes, list the required Technical Data and current revision status below, use additional sheets if necessary. Provide a copy of the applicable Technical Data to Corpair to perform the maintenance set forth on Purchase Order/Work Order Contract. Attach additional sheets if necessary.

No ___ By answering "No", the undersigned Customer directs Corpair to use only FAA Approved data, FAA regulations and FAA Repair Station guidelines to perform the maintenance set forth on the Purchase Order/Work Order Contract.

3. The above information is considered to be clear and understandable instructions for Inspections, Maintenance, Alterations, Overhaul, Airworthiness Directives and parts replacements for the FAA Form 8130-3 Dual Release being required by Customer under EASA operating rules. By executing this document the Customer has acknowledged and agrees that the information above is sufficient perform the required maintenance to the component under the Purchase Order/Work Order Contract.

Customer Representative (printed) _____

Customer Representative (signature) _____ Date: _____